Dear Jiaying Liu,

On behalf of the International Chemical Congress of the Pacific Basin Societies 2025 (Pacifichem 2025), we would like to formally invite you to attend the congress. Your participation will be an important part of an ambitious program that will include and integrate many current and varied aspects of chemistry. The congress will bring together leading international researchers from industry, academe, and government to discuss the status of the field. To attend the full program of Pacifichem 2025, we suggest that you arrive in Honolulu, Hawaii, USA on 14 December and depart on 22 December 2025.

Pacifichem 2025 does not provide financial support to congress participants. Airfare, ground transportation, hotel, meals, travel insurance, and any other local expenses are the responsibility of each congress participant.

If you need to apply for a temporary non-immigrant visa to attend the congress, you are advised to apply for your visa as soon as travel booking to the United States is contemplated and no later than 6 months in advance. All applicants must qualify for a visa on their own merits under the requirements of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Pacifichem 2025 cannot intervene with the U.S. State Department or an American embassy in another country on behalf of any congress participant.

You should bring your congress registration confirmation paperwork to your visa interview. Please note that Pacifichem will not be able to call or generate personal letters to the embassy or consulate on your behalf. Additional congress information, including visa application resources, can be found at the Pacifichem website at www.pacifichem.org.

We look forward to your participation in Pacifichem 2025.

Sincerely,

Sydney S. Vranna
